

AIRPORT LIVING WAGE DETERMINATION July 1, 2022 – June 30, 2023

Contracts governed by San Jose Municipal Code Chapter 25.11 - Airport Living Wage and Labor Standards - require Airport Businesses to provide their covered employees the following minimum compensation rates:

1. If minimum health insurance benefits are provided, compensation of no less than Seventeen Dollars and Eighty-Six Cents ($17.86) per hour.
2. If minimum health insurance benefits are not provided, compensation of no less than Nineteen Dollars and Eleven Cents ($19.11) per hour.

For the lower rate to apply, the employer must either (a) offer the covered employee an employer-sponsored health insurance plan for which the employer pays at least 50% of the cost, or (b) pay at least 50% of the cost of the covered employee's health plan.

If minimum health insurance benefits are provided to employees, the minimum compensation required as pay for each Covered Employee is $17.86, and can be the sum of the hourly wage (which cannot fall below the San Jose Minimum Wage Ordinance rate), the employer's hourly contribution for the covered employee's health insurance, and the employer's hourly contribution for the covered employee's retirement benefits.

$$\begin{array}{r} \text{Basic Hourly Pay (cannot fall below San Jose Min Wage)} \\ + \text{ Employer hourly contribution towards health insurance} \\ + \text{ Employer hourly contribution towards retirement} \\ \hline = \text{ $17.86 (Required ALWO hourly pay rate)} \end{array}$$

If minimum health insurance benefits are not provided to employees, a flat rate of $19.11 is required.

The minimum compensation rates will be reviewed annually to determine if any adjustment should be made based on any change as of December 31 of the previous year in the CPI-U for San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose. If the CPI has not increased or if the CPI has declined, the minimum compensation rate shall remain unchanged.

Any minimum compensation rate adjustment shall be effective July 1 of each year.
